

Job Profile Nightshift Foreman

The position is for an experienced Foreman, responsible for maintaining all makes of commercial vehicles and trailers to a high standard, and leading the team to ensure customer requirements are met.

Particular areas of responsibility will be to: -

- Organize team workloads and communicate with Shift.
- Communication with other Foreman's and depot manager
- Health and Safety or shift members
- To ensure all paperwork and general workshop duties are completed
- Quality of work for members of the night shift
- All work is carried out in the time scale acceptable to the customer
- Control of Idle time and productivity

Candidates should be able to demonstrate: -

- Good leadership qualities
- High level of technical knowledge and ability in mechanical repair.
- Be able to help on technical problems
- Calm approach to organizing a busy workshop
- Good experience on the Scania product

Particular experience / skills that will be regarded as ideal are: -

- HGV Class 1 would be an advantage